STEP 2: GO TO THE PAPP WEBSITE

Go to papp.org.ph. Click the “Online Pre-registration” tab.

The screenshot shows the homepage of the Philippine Academy of Pediatric Pulmonologists (PAPP). The header includes the PAPP logo on the left, the text "Philippine Academy of Pediatric Pulmonologists Save Our Children's Lung", and navigation links: HOME, ABOUT, LOG-IN, ONLINE PRE-REGISTRATION, and Log-In. The "ONLINE PRE-REGISTRATION" link is highlighted with a red box and a red mouse cursor. Below the header, there is a large portrait of a woman in a white lab coat on the left. On the right, there is a circular logo with the text "PHILIPPINE ACADEMY OF PEDIATRIC PULMONOLOGISTS" and "1992". Below the logo, the text "WELCOME TO PAPP" is displayed. A paragraph of text follows, starting with "On behalf of the 2017-2019 PAPP Board of Directors, it is my pleasure to welcome you to the PAPP Website! This website was designed to be the platform bringing the latest updates, announcements, events and activities of the academy to our dear members and friends in the country and from other parts of the world. It is part of the academy's commitment to enhance communication among members, establish and maintain linkages and networking with other specialists involved and with a special interest in the field of pediatric pulmonology. The site is still in its evolution stage as it was just re-opened January of 2018, so please bear with us. The Virtual Library is intended to house local and foreign journals, researches done by our members, clinical practice guidelines, policy statements and case reports. Active participation in the academy's interhospital case conferences is now possible for members through the Webex, which was organized in cooperation with our pharma friends. The format for the Registry of Diseases has been finalized to
